Continuing professional development for schools

Course booklet 2024/25

Welcome

Who we are

We are a dedicated, experienced and highly qualified team of professionals, offering a range of support to schools - both across the curriculum and through all ages and phases, from the EYFS to Key Stage 5. Building on existing expertise in schools, we offer a comprehensive programme of continuing professional development (CPD) courses throughout the year to help teachers develop a culture of high quality teaching and learning in schools, and respond to the specific needs of schools to the local, regional and national agenda.

In addition to centrally run CPD courses, we also provide:

- Bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training
- A range of packages of support, which can be viewed on the Telford Education Services website.

How to use the course document

Our CPD courses are listed in the index, appearing under one or more category (ie Teaching and Learning, Leadership and Management) and are also listed in date order in our course calendar – all of which are hyperlinked to the relevant course page in the booklet. At the bottom of each page there is a hyperlink to return the reader to the index.

The booklet is regularly updated and can be found on the Telford Education Services website.

Where we hold our training

The majority of training courses are held in centrally located hotels and purpose built training centres. The training rooms are modern, comfortable and practical spaces able to accommodate cabaret or theatre style seating, fully equipped with the latest technology and Wi-Fi. Refreshments are provided on arrival and during mid-session breaks, with lunch provided for full day courses, catering for all dietary requirements. Car parking facilities are usually available on site, easily accessible and mostly free of charge.

Where face to face training is not practical our courses are held virtually using Microsoft Teams.

CPD

A photograph of two young students in school uniforms (white shirts and dark ties) standing in front of a large whiteboard. The student in the foreground is smiling broadly and holding a black marker, ready to write. The student behind them is also smiling and has their hand raised, pointing at the whiteboard. The background shows a classroom setting with a window and some blurred equipment.

Cancellation policy: Please refer to the CPD Booklet for the full cancellation policy. In summary, all cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation is received.

A charge of 35% (*) will normally be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within 5 working days of the course date, with the full course fee being charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In exceptional circumstances, where a course is running again within the same academic year, we will do our best to move delegates across to the next course date. However, where notification of non-attendance is received on the day of a face to face course, a £20 flat fee will be charged to cover the cost of refreshments, the venue and administration; this will be in addition to the full course fee when the delegate next attends that particular course.

For courses which are free of charge, any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will incur a £10 delegate fee (for online courses) to cover administration and a £20 delegate (for face to face courses) to cover refreshment and venue costs.

Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give 5 working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Personal Data: Telford & Wrekin Council collects your personal data to enable you to be able to complete eLearning and face to face training to support your role under Article 6(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 or equivalent United Kingdom legislation. Safety Intervention Training (formerly MAPA training) - CPI accredited

Course Tutor: Clare Wilson and Claire Hughes

Target Audience: All school staff - T&W LA Maintained Schools only

Course Content

This CPI accredited training has been designed to enhance your understanding and management of disruptive, aggressive, and / or violent behaviour.

Safety Intervention Training has been delivered to a wide range of professional staff within health, education and social care environments since 1992, and aims to ensure that everyone involved in crisis situations, which include disruptive, challenging, or violent behaviour, can maintain the care, welfare, safety, and security of all involved.

The programme will be delivered to you within a legal and professional framework consistent with current national standards, your organisation's policies and guidance and current research, as well as recognised best practices.

Key Outcomes

By the end of the course, you will have explored and developed a range of psychological and physiological responses to behaviour that will enable you to minimise the potential harm disruptive, aggressive, and/or violent behaviour can cause. The ultimate focus of this event is to ensure that you gain the essential knowledge, skills, and confidence to prevent, decelerate, and de-escalate crisis situations.

Additionally, this programme will ensure that you have the necessary foundation skills to reduce the likelihood of risky or dangerous behaviour occurring in the first instance, as well as to manage such behaviour when it does occur, using a range of recognised physical interventions that aim to minimise risk, without damaging the professional and supportive relationship you have worked so hard to establish with the individuals in your care.

To maintain your licence, a refresher must be attended every 12 months (BSAT 212).

Safety Intervention Refresher Training (formerly MAPA Refresher Training) - CPI accredited

Course Tutor: Clare Wilson and Claire Hughes

Target Audience: All school staff - T&W LA Maintained Schools only

Course Content

CPI / Pivotal Safety Intervention (formerly MAPA) works with mainstream schools & special education establishments, providing comprehensive staff training programmes that help develop a culture of Care, Welfare, Safety, and SecuritySM. Through the programme and strategies discussed, our training educates and empowers teachers and other staff, creating safe and respectful school environments.

Refresher training builds on the foundation established in the CPI Safety Intervention Training programme. The training process provides staff with the opportunity to develop a more meaningful understanding of how programme concepts apply to their work within education settings. Over time staff build confidence in their ability to apply training concepts effectively and safely as they face various and ever-changing realities.

Key Outcomes

To review and expand on the CPI Safety Intervention Training concepts:

- regularly and formally assessing staff competence and proficiency in the intervention strategies taught in the CPI Safety Intervention Training programme
- assessing team member strength areas and areas requiring improvement relating to crisis prevention and intervention

Promoting Cultural Diversity and Equality of Opportunity in EYFS

Course Tutor: Kirsty Holden

Target Audience: Teaching and support staff working in the EYFS

Course Content

This course will outline the statutory duties of practitioners to eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and foster good relations in the EYFS - ensuring the latest OFSTED criteria is met and examined in relation to individual settings.

The course will also provide:

- key strategies to support language development through quality first teaching and learning in a culturally and linguistically supportive environment for all learners, especially EAL, in EYFS
- practical suggestions for activities that introduce children to a diversity of cultures and to reflect the cultures of all children within the setting, opening children's eyes to different cultures, ethnicities and faiths, focussed on the festivals throughout a year
- recommendations on a range of useful resources and websites

Key Outcomes

Delegates will:

- understand why the promotion of equality and diversity is essential in Early Years
- understand the role of the setting in promoting equality of opportunity and fostering good relations under the 2010 Equality Act
- develop approaches to exploring different cultures in Early Years that avoid stereotyping and tokenism and help children explore their own and others' identities
- be aware of practical ways of ensuring that the learning environment reflects the cultural experiences of all children, including those from minority ethnic groups
- develop the use and development of first language within the setting

Online Safety – a Safeguarding Responsibility

Course Tutor: Rebecca Carey

Target Audience: Headteachers, governors, senior & middle leaders

Course Content

Digital technology is continually changing and therefore it is essential that schools stay up-to-date with new developments.

Within the Ofsted framework online safety is included as an important part of a school's overall safeguarding responsibility.

Guidance for Ofsted inspectors to use when inspecting safeguarding under the common inspection framework outlines that, when assessing how effectively leaders and governors create a safeguarding culture in the setting, inspectors should consider evidence that:

- action is taken to ensure children are taught about safeguarding risks, including online risks
- staff, leaders and managers oversee the safe use of electronic and social media by staff and learners, and take immediate action if they are concerned about bullying or risky behaviours
- appropriate filters and monitoring systems are in place to protect learners from potentially harmful online material

Online safety is categorised into three main areas of risk:

Content: Being exposed to illegal, inappropriate or harmful material

Contact: Being subjected to harmful online interaction with other users

Conduct: Personal online behaviour that increases the likelihood of, or causes, harm

Key Outcomes

This course is designed to ensure delegates are informed about the issues and resources available to enable them to safeguard and educate young people about how to safely use online environments.

Cost per delegate

Developing the Role of the EAL Coordinator

Course Tutor: Qamar Maqsood

Target Audience: Staff members with the responsibility for EAL

Course Content

As the proportion of EAL pupils in schools grows, the role of overseeing EAL is becoming an area of specialist responsibility in increasing numbers of schools.

This course will cover the role of the EAL Coordinator in developing systems and maintaining appropriate provision for EAL pupils across the school, including best practice in:

- appropriate induction of new arrivals
- assessment and monitoring systems
- recording and sharing information
- developing an EAL policy
- planning support and intervention programmes
- processes to improve communication with parents / carers

It will also signpost delegates to sources of further information, training and support.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will gain an overview of best practice in EAL provision and be able to take a leading role in the development of EAL provision across their school.

Virtual School Conference for Designated Teachers and Nominated Governors for Children in Care

Course Tutor: Virtual School

Target Audience: Designated Teachers, Designated Safeguarding Leads & Nominated Governors for Children in Care

Course Content

The conference will provide you with an opportunity to develop links with the Virtual School, Health and Social Care colleagues and with other Designated Teachers, Designated Safeguarding Leads and Nominated Governors, as we work together to increase the progress Telford & Wrekin children in care and all children with a Social Worker make in school and beyond.

Even if you currently have no children in care or children with a Social Worker at your school, it is important that you remain up to date with processes and expectations. In addition, Ofsted is looking quite closely at the relationship schools have with the Virtual School, and information gained at network meetings has proven very useful to many schools during inspection.

Educational outcomes for children in care and children in need are a key priority for Ofsted in the West Midlands Region and inspectors have told us that they will be looking closely at how a school prioritises work with children in care and vulnerable learners when making inspection judgements.

Key Outcomes

Attendance will help to ensure schools comply with statutory duties for Children in Care, previously Looked after Children, and Children with a Social Worker.

The conference will provide:

- opportunities to network
- share best practice
- keep up to date with the latest research and developments

Cost per delegate

T&W LA Schools & Academies	£150 for the first delegate and £100 for additional delegates from the same school or setting Early bird discount £130 for the first delegate and £80 for subsequent delegates from the same setting booked on or before 28 February 2025

Assessing and Monitoring of Progress in EAL

Course Tutor: Qamar Maqsood

Target Audience: Headteachers, EAL coordinators, staff with responsibility for assessment and / or inclusion and class teachers

Course Content

This course will explore how schools can:

- establish a robust baseline assessment of EAL learners' English language skills on first arrival, identify appropriate targets and next steps, and track progress against expected rates of language development
- use a variety of EAL assessment frameworks to show evidence of progress, particularly for those pupils without prior attainment data and those working well below age-related expectations
- integrate EAL assessment and monitoring into the school's existing systems

There will be an opportunity to use case study material for moderation.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will be able to:

- track pupil progress in English language development
- set targets
- show progress and identify areas of concern

Developing Reading for Meaning Strategies for EAL Learners at KS2

Course Tutor: Kirsty Holden and Qamar Maqsood

Target Audience: Staff with responsibility for EAL and classroom teachers

Course Content

Reading is a key focus, and it is the area where EAL learners typically make slowest progress at KS2, and where the attainment gap is greatest.

This course will:

- explore the potential barriers to successful reading for EAL learners
- provide clear guidance on expectations of progress and identification of whole class / intervention strategies which can enable children to access reading and meet age appropriate expectations; these approaches are equally relevant to monolingual pupils who struggle with reading comprehension

Key Outcomes

Delegates will explore:

- the process of children's additional language development when they are in the early stages of developing English competency
- barriers to becoming a successful reader
- strategies to develop reading fluency
- using reading to broaden and deepen vocabulary
- effective differentiation for whole-class texts
- group reading strategies that work well for EAL learners, with a focus on reciprocal reading
- supporting EAL children's independent reading

Improving EAL Pupils' Writing

Course Tutor: Kirsty Holden and Qamar Maqsood

Target Audience: EAL coordinators and class teachers

Course Content

Writing is an area in which many EAL learners demonstrate a lack of understanding of the complexity of the English language. Speaking and listening activities reinforce and extend children's developing reading and writing skills. Most children try out ideas in talk long before they are able to pin them down in writing.

This course will:

- explore the potential barriers to successful writing for EAL learners
- provide guidance on successful strategies to support the development of writing
- consider expectations of progress and identification of whole class / intervention strategies, which can enable children to develop their writing and meet age appropriate expectations; these approaches are equally relevant to monolingual pupils who struggle with writing

Delegates will explore:

- the process of children's additional language development when they are in the early stages of developing English competency in writing
- barriers to becoming a successful writer
- strategies to develop writing accuracy - including sentence structure, grammar, usage of Tier 2 and 3 vocabulary in writing
- using speaking, listening and reading strategies to broaden and deepen vocabulary usage to engage the reader of their writing
- supporting the development of EAL children's independent writing

Annual Early Years Conference

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: EYFS leads, reception class teachers and nursery practitioners

Course Content

This is an annual full day conference event which will be led by two high profile key note presenters.

Morning Session: Aaron Bradbury, Principal Lecturer for Early Childhood and Early Years, Nottingham Trent University.

Focusing on his new book 'A Child Centred EYFS' co authored with Ruth Swailes, Aaron will discuss the continual changes of the EYFS in recent years, demonstrating what constitutes effective practice in the early childhood sector and the methods of implementing this application to children's learning. Aaron will explore the roles of early years practitioners and focus on what truly matters within our settings 'a child centred approach'.

Afternoon Session: Greg Bottrell, author of the bestselling 'Can I go and play now?', School of the Magic of Children and 'Love Letters to Play'.

Join Greg as he shares a treasure trove of ways to add to your playful pedagogy - more than ever children need the companionship of loving adults who offer them choice, creativity, imagination and movement and Greg will show how we turn up the dial so that children thrive. Discover how nonsense, active listening and the unlocking of our own inner child can all add to our time spent with children and how we can create even more powerful connections with the families we work with.

Best practice in your breakfast, after-school and holiday provision

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Teaching assistants, out of school club coordinators, breakfast club coordinators

Course Content

Out of school clubs form part of the Government's Extended Schools Agenda, and include after-school clubs, breakfast clubs and holiday clubs.

Extended schools are designed to help parents balance work and family commitments, whilst providing children with study support and offering them a broader range of experiences and interests.

There are other benefits for children who attend extended provision, including better attendance, attainment, behaviour, confidence and social skills.

This training will support you to develop and provide good quality out of school provision for children and their families.

Delegates will:

- be able to enhance or develop breakfast, after-school and holiday provision
- take away ideas that will promote a fun and stimulating environment for children
- identify strategies to obtain feedback and views, consulting with children and their families
- be able to evaluate provision and identify areas for development

The Role of the Key Person in the Early Years Foundation Stage

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Reception class teachers, nursery practitioners and teaching assistants

Course Content

(Department for Education) The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) is mandatory for all providers of early years in England; this includes maintained schools, non-maintained schools and independent schools.

Ofsted and inspectorates of independent schools have regard to the EYFS in carrying out inspections. Ofsted may issue actions (in respect of any failure to meet a requirement in the document) and/or may issue a welfare requirement notice (in respect of section 3). It is an offence for a provider to fail to comply with a welfare requirement notice.

EYFS 1.10 and 3.27

Each child must be assigned a key person. Their role is to help ensure that every child's care is tailored to meet their individual needs, to help the child become familiar with the setting, offer a settled relationship for the child and build a relationship with the parents. The key person must seek to engage and support parents and / or carers in guiding their child's development at home. They should also help families engage with more specialist support if appropriate.

Education Inspection Framework:

Evaluating the quality of early years education in schools

Good practice – Implementation

- Staff provide information for parents about their child's progress in line with requirements of the EYFS. They provide information to parents about supporting their child's learning at home, including detail about the school's method of teaching reading and how to help children learn to read.
- The curriculum and care practices promote and support children's emotional security and development of their character. Leaders and staff are particularly attentive to the youngest children's needs.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will:

- have a greater understanding of the importance of the role of the key person in supporting children's learning, development and wellbeing
- have a raised awareness of the importance of supporting children's emotional health and wellbeing through strong key person relationships, including attachment theory
- be able to reflect upon current practice with regards to the role of the 'key person', as set out in the in the Early Years Foundation Stage Curriculum:
 - knowing the child well
 - observing and planning to meet their individual needs, and
 - supporting learning in the home environment
- understand the important role of the key person when supporting children through transitions into the nursery / school, within the school, and through key events in children's lives

Effective Circle Times in the EYFS

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Teachers in nursery, reception, teaching assistants, apprentices, practitioners new to the EYFS

Course Content

(Ofsted) The school inspection handbook states that inspectors will consider how well:

- staff develop children's communication and language through singing songs, nursery rhymes and playing games
- leaders and staff are aware of the large difference in development between children who are just 2 and those approaching their fourth birthday
- staff listen to children and respond to their verbal and non-verbal communication rather than interrupting them

This training will enable practitioners to think about how they can utilise circle times more effectively, reflecting on current practice, child development and the adult role when supporting children's listening and attention skills.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will be able to:

- consider what makes a good circle time and plan more effective
- have a greater understanding of the development levels for early years children
- review resources and activities to support circle times
- evaluate the role of the adult and child in successful circle times
- support SEND children more effectively during circle times

There will be opportunities to discuss and reflect on your experiences, practice, share ideas and network with other EYFS practitioners.

Messy Mathematics in an Outdoor Learning Environment

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Reception & year 1 teachers, teaching assistants, forest school leaders, EYFS leads, nursery practitioners

Course Content

The world is a mathematical place, children are naturally curious, there are numbers, things to count, shapes, moving objects and patterns plus investigations to be undertaken.

We need to demonstrate and support children in experiencing mathematics in the natural outdoor learning environment.

Messy Maths training will:

- help practitioners consider their own understanding and confidence in developing a mathematical provision, making the most of the outdoor space in their Early Years provision
- enable children with lots of informal, spontaneous mathematical experiences which are child-initiated and child-led
- provide a range of open-ended ideas for adapting to children's interests as part of a playful approach to learning mathematical concepts
- enable practitioners to make the most of any outdoor space as a context to maths

Key Outcomes

Practitioners will gain:

- an understanding of how maths can present in nature and support learning and development of children in the natural world
- a range of practical mathematical activities to support, enthuse and engage with early years children in an outdoor learning environment

Let's Get Expressive, Creative and Messy In The Outdoors

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Reception & year 1 teachers, teaching assistants, forest school leaders, EYFS leads, nursery practitioners

Course Content

Children are naturally curious, creative and expressive and have an innate need to play. Through their play they begin to understand the world around them and learn. We need to demonstrate and support children in experiencing expressive arts and crafts in a natural outdoor learning environment.

Let's get expressive, creative and messy in the outdoors training will:

- provide a range of open-ended ideas / activities for adapting to children's interests as part of a playful approach to learning expressive arts and design
- enable practitioners to make the most of any outdoor space
- enable children to experience awe and wonder in the natural world in a creative way
- help practitioners consider their own understanding and confidence in developing a rich expressive arts and design environment that is inspiring and engaging
- help delegates to utilise the outdoor spaces in their early years provision and school grounds to support children's learning and development
- enable and support children with opportunities of informal, spontaneous art and crafts experiences which are child initiated and child led

Key Outcomes

Practitioners will:

- gain a range of fun, engaging practical expressive arts and design themed activities to support, enthuse and engage early years children in an outdoor learning environment
- understand the ways that the natural world can present to support learning and development of children in the outdoor environment
- recognise that supporting expressive arts and design within the outdoor learning environment develops a child's imagination, exploration, creativity and their ability to use different media and materials within the natural world around them

Induction Training for New Governors

Course Tutor: Rebecca Carey

Target Audience: Governors new, or recently appointed, to the role

Course Content

The course will cover in some depth the key functions of the governing body, including:

- ensuring clarity of vision, ethos and strategic direction
- holding the headteacher to account for the educational performance of the school and the performance management of staff
- overseeing financial performance and making sure money is well spent
- the characteristics of effective schools
- the key roles and responsibilities of governing bodies in improving schools
- the different and complementary roles of governors and headteachers (distinction between governance and management)

Important note: for new governors, attendance on this course should be accompanied by attendance on course SG 103 - Safeguarding Induction Training for Governors. This is in line with the Government's update to Keeping Children Safe in Education (Sept 2022)

Key Outcomes

As a result of this professional development activity, governors will be more able to:

- work effectively with school leaders to communicate the vision, ethos and strategic direction of the school and create a culture of ambition
- provide a balance of support and challenge to leaders, understanding the school's strengths and areas needing improvement
- use a range of sources of objective data, including the OFSTED Inspection Dashboard to create robust accountability
- understand the links between performance management of staff and school improvement
- hold the school to account for the impact of additional funding in improving pupil achievement
- seek and respond to the views of stakeholders, including through the use of Parent View

The Importance of the Early Years Foundation Stage in Schools

Course Tutor: Early Years Team

Target Audience: Governors in EYFS and primary schools

Course Content

(Department for Education) The Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) is mandatory for all early years' providers in England; this includes maintained schools, non-maintained schools and independent schools.

Ofsted and inspectorates of independent schools have regard to the EYFS in carrying out inspections. Ofsted may issue actions (in respect of any failure to meet a requirement in the document) and/or may issue a welfare requirement notice (in respect of section 3). It is an offence for a provider to fail to comply with a welfare requirement notice.

This course will support the completion of Education Safeguarding audits conducted by the Local Authority.

Key Outcomes

Delegates will:

- have a good understanding of the importance of the EYFS in schools
- be familiar with the EYFS documentation and the 3 sections - a) the learning and development requirements b) assessment c) the safeguarding and welfare requirements
- understand the importance of the underpinning themes and the principles of the EYFS
- recognise the importance of play within the EYFS curriculum
- consider the importance of appropriately trained staff working with children in the EYFS
- appreciate the importance of partnership working to improve outcomes for children

Safeguarding Induction Training for Governors

Course Tutor: Education Safeguarding Team

Target Audience: New Governors

Course Content

This course will provide all new governors with a detailed understanding of their role and responsibilities in relation to safeguarding.

This is in line with the recommendations and requirements of the Government's update to Keeping Children Safe in Education, with effect from 1 September 2022.

Key Outcomes

Attendance is recommended for all new governors to meet the requirements of 'Keeping Children Safe in Education'.

Delegates will have an understanding of their responsibilities in relation to safeguarding.

Please note: all new governors will need to attend either the full day course, or, if opting for twilights, will need to attend both twilights (parts 1 and 2 are interchangeable within the sets of dates so governors must attend a part one and a part two course).

Cost per delegate (for the whole course i.e. both parts, where applicable, or the 9.30am to 2pm session)

T&W LA Schools & Academies	£191 (face to face) £164 (online via Microsoft Teams)
Non T&W Schools	£229.20 (face to face) £196.80 (online via Microsoft Teams)

Raising Awareness of Online Safety

Course Tutor: Education Safeguarding Team

Target Audience: All staff working in schools and colleges

Course Content

Keeping children safe in education says, 'All staff should receive appropriate training, including online safety which, amongst other things, includes an understanding of the expectations, applicable roles and responsibilities in relation to filtering and monitoring at induction. The training should be regularly updated. In addition, all staff should receive online safety updates, as required, and at least annually, to continue to provide them with relevant skills and knowledge to safeguard children effectively.

The course will include:

- How to promote an effective whole school and college approach to online safety empowering staff to protect and educate pupils, students and themselves in their use of technology and the mechanisms to identify, intervene in, and escalate any concerns where appropriate
- The breadth of considerable and ever evolving issues classified within online safety and cover the four areas of risk
- How staff should ensure online safety is a running and interrelated theme whilst devising and implementing a whole school or college approach to safeguarding and related policies and procedures.
- Consider how online safety is reflected as required in all relevant policies and considering online safety whilst planning the curriculum, any teacher training, the role and responsibilities of the designated safeguarding lead (and deputies) and any parental engagement
- Review how social media often plays a central role in incidents between children and how to ensure online safety support is provided for pupils and students.
- Consider the online safety advice and the guidance available to schools and colleges to support online safety awareness.

Key Outcomes

- Understand the unique risks associated with online safety.
- Have knowledge of how to keep children safe while they are online at school or college.
- Understand the approach to teaching online safety.
- Know about the lived experience of children and adults and the role of internet use in everyday life.
- Understand the implications for the online safety curriculum and associated safeguarding policies.

- Understand roles and responsibilities in developing safe use of the internet for children in school and outside of school.
- Understand the requirements of meeting the filtering and monitoring standards.

Raising Awareness of Child-on-Child Abuse

Course Tutor: Education Safeguarding Team

Target Audience: All staff working in schools and colleges

Course Content

Keeping children safe in education says, 'All staff should recognise that children are capable of abusing other children (including online). All staff should be clear about policy and procedures with regard to child-on-child abuse.'

The course will include:

- How to minimise the risk of child-on-child abuse.
- Systems in place for children to confidently report abuse, knowing their concerns will be treated seriously.
- How allegations of child-on-child abuse should be recorded, investigated, and dealt with.
- The processes as to how 'victims', 'perpetrators' and any other children affected by child-on-child abuse will be supported.
- Recognition that even if there are no reported cases of child-on-child abuse, such abuse may still be taking place and is simply not being reported.
- The promotion of a zero-tolerance approach to abuse to help to prevent a culture of unacceptable behaviours and an unsafe environment for children.
- Recognition that it is more likely that girls will be 'victims' and boys 'perpetrators,' but that all child-on-child abuse is unacceptable and will be taken seriously, and the different forms child-on-child abuse can take.

Key Outcomes

- Understand that children can abuse other children, and that it can happen both inside and outside of school or college and online.
- Be clear about policy and procedures with regard to child-on-child abuse and the important role staff have to play in preventing it and responding where they believe a child may be at risk from it.
- Understand that even if there are no reports of child-on-child abuse in schools or colleges it does not mean it is not happening.
- Know what child-on-child is and likely to include.
- How to respond to all signs, reports and concerns of child-on-child sexual violence and sexual harassment.

Schools' Role in the Safeguarding Legal Process

Course Tutor: Education Safeguarding Team and Legal Services

Target Audience: DSLs, Head Teachers and Senior Leaders from schools

Course Content

This training is designed for designated safeguarding leads, their deputies, head teachers and senior school leaders. The training will be delivered in a workshop style.

Due to increasing involvement of schools in public and private law proceedings, including attending court and providing statements for court. This training has been designed to help DSLs and other leaders to understand more about the legal process and their involvement, including their roles and responsibilities.

Being a part of court proceedings can be a daunting task for all professionals. This training aims to help leaders to understand how to prepare for attending court, giving evidence and the process for examination of evidence. It will explore the different types of courts and cases, care proceedings and court orders. An essential part of this training will be focusing on the essential skills needed to write a statement for court.

Key Aims

- To understand what to expect when attending court
- To learn about the qualities of a good witness, including being credible and reliable
- To develop the knowledge and skills to support effective statement writing
- To know how to prepare for court and/or involvement in the legal process.

Accredited Safer Recruitment Training

Course Tutor: HR Advisory Team representative, Education Safeguarding

Target Audience: Governors, senior leaders (cross phase)

Course Content

This training looks at the best practice that should be adopted when recruiting and selecting adults to work with children and young people. It sets out procedures and strategies to help those involved in the recruitment process to deter, identify and reject applicants who are unsuitable to work with children and young people. It also seeks to strengthen safeguards by helping to deter and prevent abuse, with the aim of creating an environment where concerns can be raised on poor or unsafe practice.

The course is intended to help employers fulfil their responsibility to have in place safe recruitment and selection practice within the wider context of safeguarding children and young people. Our lead trainer is fully accredited by the Safer Recruitment Consortium.

It is a requirement that 'providers ensure that people looking after children are suitable to fulfil the requirements of their role. Providers must have effective systems in place to ensure that practitioners, and any other person who is likely to have regular contact with children, are suitable.' (Statutory Framework for the EYFS 3.9)

Key Outcomes

This course will:

- give participants an awareness and understanding of offender behaviour
- identify the key features of staff recruitment which help deter or prevent the appointment of unsuitable people
- consider recruitment policies and practices which minimise opportunities for abuse or ensure its prompt reporting
- help participants begin to review their own and their organisations' policies and practices, with a view to making them safer, and ensure an ongoing culture of vigilance

CPI Accredited Safety Intervention Training – pricing information and bespoke training request form

Academic Year 2024-25

CPI Accredited Safety Intervention Training (formerly known as MAPA Training) is available to staff employed in maintained schools in Telford & Wrekin – either through places booked on a centrally held course or by requesting a bespoke session for a group of staff or whole-school.

Centrally held training

Details of all centrally held CPI Accredited Safety Intervention Training can be found in the CPD Booklet on the Telford Education Services website

Delegate places on all centrally held courses can be booked by completing and returning a CPD Booking Form to cpdschoolimprovement@telford.gov.uk

Bespoke training

In addition to the centrally held training, it is possible to request bespoke training for your school, which can be for the whole school or for a pre-determined group of delegates. This training is delivered face to face and is hosted by the school.

Please note: schools may find the central held training more cost effective, depending on the numbers requiring training.

Full Safety Intervention Training (1.5 days) A minimum of 10 delegates and a maximum of 15 delegates for one trainer	£172 per person *
Safety Intervention Refresher Training (usually half a day) A minimum of 5 delegates and a maximum of 18 delegates	£114 per person *

*Note: * to reflect the multiple number of delegates receiving training from the same school, a 10% discount (rounded to the nearest whole £) per delegate has been applied to the delegate fee for the respective centrally run course*

Verbal Intervention Training i.e. without holds (usually half a day)

Verbal Intervention Training	T&W LA schools – group price
Up to 5 delegates	£500
Up to 15 delegates	£924
16 to 20 delegates 	£1502 *
21 to 30 delegates 	£1733 *

 16+ delegates requires two trainers, hence the additional cost; other prices available on request
The verbal intervention prices remain unchanged from 2023-24*

Notes:

- For the Safety Intervention training & Refresher training, all delegates receive a copy of the relevant Safety Intervention booklet.
- Courses are subject to a minimum and maximum number of delegates.
- Bespoke in-school training needs to be requested on the Bespoke Safety Intervention proforma and sent via email to cpdschoolimprovement@telford.gov.uk - a member of the Behaviour Support Advisory Team will then make contact with you to discuss the session in more detail.
- Once booked a cancellation fee of 35% per delegate applies within 5 days of the course; non-arrivals on the day without prior cancellation will be charged at 100% of the cost (unless re-arranged dates are agreed).

The Severn Training & Schools Alliance

Severn

The Severn Training & Schools Alliance (STSA) is based in Telford and is a partner of the Shropshire & Telford Education Partnership Teaching Hub (STEP). The Alliance draws on a large pool of talent and expertise to deliver support for schools, professional development for staff at all stages of their career, and engages in research and development projects. The STSA works very closely with Telford & Wrekin Local Authority and offers a complimentary CPD programme, which includes headteacher workshops, deputy/assistant heads network, courses and network meetings for History, PSHEE, Geography, Art, D&T and MFL. The STSA also offers bespoke support and training sessions to schools. These can be delivered as one to one sessions or staff meetings.

The STSA lead the Future in Mind project, which provides schools with specialised CPD to support the mental health and emotional health & well-being of children, young people and their families and provides a network of support and shared good practice for partners. The STSA has good links with the DfE curriculum hubs, including the Language, Maths, Science and Computing hubs.

In partnership with the University of Chester, the STSA offers high quality Early Years and Primary Initial Teacher Training via the School Direct route.

Enquiries on any of the areas offered by the STSA can be made via email to sue.stoddart2@taw.org.uk

Health and Wellbeing Toolkit

The Health and Wellbeing Toolkit is a place where schools, settings and professionals can find and access trusted, quality assured health and wellbeing resources to use in the classroom as well as in a whole setting approach and home environment.

Within this toolkit you will find resources relating to physical activity, food and nutrition, and mental and emotional wellbeing, which all contribute to a child's overall health and wellbeing as well as having a positive effect on their education, attainment and behaviour.

The resources found here will also help schools meet requirements for the Relationship, Health and Sex Education (RHSE) curriculum and obtain a Healthy Schools Rating as part of the Active Lives Survey completed for Sport England. It can also support practitioners working with individuals or family groups to improve their health and wellbeing.

How to talk to children and families about weight

There will be teachers in a position that may have children starting conversations about their weight and it is best to be prepared to have these conversations either with children or their parents. The University of Bath has created an e-learning module around parents talking to their children about weight. The aim of both the module and the corresponding guide is to help parents, caregivers and those who work with families talk with children about weight in a positive way. Free Ollie Training

For those schools that are signed up to the Ollie programme, there are three online training sessions designed to increase knowledge and understanding around healthy lifestyles and obesity within adults and children.

These courses will support learners to not only support children and families but also the health and wellbeing of themselves, their families and colleagues. Nutrition Awareness for those working with Children Healthy Lifestyle For All Adult Obesity.

School Food Standards

Understanding the School Food Standards is a simple way of ensuring children are eating a balanced diet during the school day, from the food provided during your wrap around provision to school lunches. It is also important to be aware that food high in fats, sugar and salt should not be served across the school day, which includes the use of these foods in class-based learning. To understand the full standards, head teachers check list or to create a culture of healthy eating visit the GOV.UK website to access 'School food standards: resources for schools'.

New school food standards were introduced in January 2015 and have been mandatory in all maintained schools, new academies and free schools since. Governors are responsible for ensuring these standards are being met.

The Toolkit details some resources we have created to help support your school to meet the School Food Standards across the whole school day. These include some checklists to help you audit your current provision and top tips posters for food ideas that comply with the standards for all potential meals.

If you would like support to ensure your school is complying with the school food standards, please contact us at healthimprovement@telford.gov.uk

Department of Education Healthy School Rating The Department for Education has replaced the old Healthy School Scheme with the new Healthy School Rating.

This new Healthy School Award has been added to the Sport England Active Lives Survey. As part of the Active Lives Survey teachers are required to complete an online questionnaire in which schools are questioned on four areas:

- Food education
- School food standards
- Physical education

- Active travel.

The school's response to this survey is then assessed as part of the DfE's Healthy Schools Rating Scheme (HSRS), and a rating and certificate issued to the school.

To help your school achieve a rating some helpful resource has been created to support your school to achieve the Department for Education's Healthy School Rating and get the best result for your Active Lives Survey.

Within the resource page you will find:

- a national video that explains where the Active Lives Survey came from, why it is important to complete and how it benefits your school
- a second video that provides a more in-depth introduction to the Active Lives/Healthy School survey
- a third video about how to complete the survey to ensure you get the best possible results for the Active Lives Report and achieve a Healthy School Rating
- downloadable helpful tips guide to help you complete the survey
- details of who is your local Active Lives Survey Coordinator. Visit the Energize website to view this resource.

Terms and conditions

CANCELLATION POLICY

All cancellations of course bookings must be made via email. Unfortunately a phone call cannot be accepted as a means of cancellation. All bookings will remain on our system until written confirmation of cancellation is received.

A charge of 35% (*) will be incurred if a delegate place is cancelled within 5 working days of the course date. The full course fee will be charged for any delegate who does not arrive for a course for which a place has been booked and not cancelled. In the case of extreme adverse weather conditions delegates who cancel their place via email before the course ends will not be charged.

We do not intend to charge a cancellation fee for any non-attendance which is directly linked to Covid 19 and in these circumstances we will endeavour to transfer the booking across to a later course date. Where possible, it would be very helpful if the school could please notify us in advance.

All delegates will be required to sign the course register on arrival. Whilst we will make every effort, we cannot guarantee to accommodate delegates on a course for which they have not booked a place.

In the event that a course has to be cancelled, we will endeavour to give 5 working days' notice of cancellation. Other than in the case of extreme adverse weather conditions, if a course is cancelled within 24 hours of the course start time, we will refund any supply costs incurred. Any claims must be made in writing and must be accompanied by full documentary evidence.

Courses offered to schools by other teams are also advertised within this booklet. Where booking procedures and contact details are different for these courses, this information is contained at the bottom of the course page.

NOTES

Delegate Fees: Whilst we will make every effort not to do so, we reserve the right to increase the delegate fees during the year to reflect any inflationary price increases in either room hire and / or catering.

Where courses indicate that there will be a 10% discount per delegate for two or more bookings on the same course, this refers to multiple bookings on the same date or session (by two or more delegates from the same school)

(*) for courses which are free of charge, or inclusive within a service level agreement (i.e. the ECT Support Package or the Safeguarding SLA), the charge for any delegate failing to attend, and not cancelling their place in advance, will be £10 to cover administration and refreshment costs.

Personal Data: Telford & Wrekin Council collects your personal data to enable you to be able to complete eLearning and face to face training to support your role under Article 6(1)(b) of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 or equivalent United Kingdom legislation.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We provide a range of services to schools, including:

- bespoke consultancy support and bespoke training
- continuing professional development courses
- packages of support via service level agreements

As a service we are committed to:

- dealing with complaints and concerns quickly and effectively, and
- using the information received to review and improve our services

Sometimes we do make mistakes - if you are not happy with the service you have received from us we want to know. In most instances we would hope that any concerns can be resolved at the time - with the provider of that service. If, having done this, you still have cause for concern, please follow the steps below.

The formal complaints procedure has three stages:

Stage One - If you have a complaint or cause for concern, please contact Rebecca Carey, Service Delivery Manager, as soon as possible.

email: rebecca.carey@telford.gov.uk

We aim to respond fully to complaints within 10 working days. If for some reason this is not possible, we will contact you to explain the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response. Most complaints will be quickly and successfully resolved at this stage.

Stage Two - In the unlikely event that you feel your complaint has not been successfully resolved we would ask you to contact our Director of Education and Skills, Simon Wellman.

email: simon.wellman@telford.gov.uk or tel: 01952 380800

We aim to respond to a Stage 2 complaint within 25 working days. If it is not possible to respond within 25 working days, we will write to you explaining the reasons for the delay and let you know when you can expect a response.

Stage Three - If you still feel your complaint remains unresolved, please refer to the Council's Complaints Procedure – which can be found on the Telford & Wrekin Council website:
